MEGASTAR CELEBRITY INTERVIEW

Written By

MEG MOSLEY

OPENING SCENE

Megastar sits in a white suit and killer heels, perched on a plush chaise lounge in an expensive boutique hotel room in leafy Wiltshire. Her merchandise is spread strategically on a crystal coffee table in front of her. The camera equipment is set up pointed at the chaise and the media crew bustle around. Megastar is asking her assistant how she looks, she's wearing heavy makeup, thick fake lashes and long hair extensions. There is an air of enthusiasm, excitement and anticipation for Megastar's first tell all celebrity interview and voice over for her new reality TV series #mylife. Megastar and the interviewer greet each other with air kisses before Megastar's smiles drop and she shouts demands at her assistant to retouch her make up. Megastar sits, her french manicured hands resting on her tight white trousers. She stares directly into the camera with wide open inviting eyes and a slight pout. The interview begins.

MEGASTAR

I'm so glad I have got the chance to put my story out there. There is so much written about me in the press. This is my time to tell you my side of the story.

INTERVIEWER

Describe the Megastar phenomenon?

MEGASTAR

Cos I'm awesome!? ...hashtag jokes! No...well... I'm a small town girl with swagger. Some of us are made to do this and some of us are just good at it, that's me! It's totes my calling. My family taught me to 'rock the frock'. I have always shown princess potential. If you want a wedding dress and have a party... you do it! Don't wait for a man! My Mum's like dance always and have fun! End of the day I've been bought up to own my own unique party style and sass! I was taught fun is fierce! My family are uber fun. I feel like coming from Trow Vegas has helped me stand out, as I'm kinda like a representative for all girls out there from boring towns. I've like nailed a niche market. It's all about timing, there was a place in the market a small town girl and I'm a sensation aren't I - I am trending now it's gone cray cray. I OWN the high street honey 'look book'. People relate to me! I'm just being me. I have kinda re-shaped the mould - taken the cake outa the tradish tin and baked it in my own brand. Like my music video coming out soon - I lip sync, I don't sing. Singing is like the middle man. Who needs it! Fire the middle man "You're Fired" (points finger). My latest lip sync YouTube channel gets thousands of hits per day! I know what works. I bring it! The industry is not about content but style, I'm not stupid, I'm all over that! It doesn't bother me as I got heaps of style - hashtag just saying!

INTERVIEWER

It's quite well documented that one of your great early influences was your Grandmother, who you called Gog's. In what way has her example affected you?

MEGASTAR

She TOTES groomed for celebrity, gave me my glamour training. She was the original family celebrity, hanging out with film stars like Vivien and Larry back in the day... 'The Olives' (in joke) Gogs had the swagger and she got men interested and with men came money and minks... 'be a minx in the minks!' I don't have that luxury here I need to make my own dollar. I set about working on my charisma as far as I can see that can get you places. It was like a sort of apprenticeship, like being groomed for stardom and learning from the master. It's like we are all a bit bonkers in our family, like the Kardashian's, well OTT and all that, so it came naturally to me. Of course there had to be updates. It's SO not the 1940's now, like, no Twitter back then to build your following and keep them filled in, but the principles are the same. Keeping your face in the frame - BOOM! Times are different now you can't sashay in minks you gotta get those selfies on the go, you gotta hashtag them up. You gotta have a broad reach be an entrepreneur. I have just launched a dating website 'plenty of pugs', a clothing range a baby range, and a pet range. You need star quality to sell and I have it I have a unique quality, I'm like childlike but really wise, and I'm real - I'm too real. My Gogs was the ultimate party girl I know she's approving of my antics.

INTERVIEWER

Some years ago you had a birthday party where you put your glamour training to the test. Talk us through that and the effect it had?

MEGASTAR

Some years ago cheeky! That was my 30th only a few years ago. That was a pivotal limo ride for me a 'piv-mo'. That was the start of the confident, powerful me celebrating myself in style - the way I thought my Gran would have approved of. I call it the megastar party (partay) I put the 'ay' in part-ay HOLLER! Anyways...the megastar partay let me break it down for you! It's a well themed affair and no one minds me being centre of attention, cos its not like I'm stealing it its like they want me to be in it! You know, family and friends are the most important, well I'm the most important but they come a close second and like they love to party as much as me, so we got limo'd up and cracked on into Bath to get our crunk on. What was really great about that night was that like everyone had as much fun as me - you could tell! They've come to me since saying things like 'Meg, that night - OMG! Did we have fun or what?' Friends and family love me. They're rooting for me.

INTERVIEWER

How would you describe the Megastar phenomena as you are currently globally trending?

MEGASTAR

That's nice to call me a phenomena, I mean its true, but that's nice of you to acknowledge it WORD! It's not just one thing about me its many little things that when you add them all together you get a star. I have a childlike quality, which makes me relatable yer get me? Youth sells doesn't it? You gotta hang onto it for as long as possible. I have a signature trout pout - my dad was like why do you pull that face in all pictures and I'm like dad ease up its on trend you douche! - It's all about being on trend ya know selfies and all that, I'm a selfie pro "No Vain No Gain" is one of my social media signature sayings - nail them selfies. It does get hard cos to get a good selfies it can take time people don't know the effort I put in.
